

A.P. U.S. History Exam Review Web Sites

<http://historyteacher.net/AHAP/AHAP-FinalReviewPage.htm>

Power points and review handouts specifically designed to help students prep for the AP exam.

<http://www.historystage.com/multiplechoicepractice.phtml>

This web page directly links to the best online A.P. U.S. history quizzes on the Internet.

<http://www.polytechnic.org/faculty/gfeldmeth/USHistory.html>

This site contains a list of key terms that students should know, timelines of historical periods, short practice quizzes, lecture outlines, charts, and a table of presidential elections.

<http://mentorhigh.com/roberts/APUS/APUSReview/ReviewPage.html>

An eclectic review site created by an A.P. U.S. history teacher. It contains chronological review notes, topical drill sheets, timelines, and more.

<http://www.perno.com/history/lessons.htm>

A good set of teacher created lecture notes, tables, and charts covering most of American history.

<http://apstudent.com/ushistory/cards.php>

This is a list of 1600 note cards covering all of United States history. Each card is has short explanations or definitions of important people, events, laws, dates, etc in American history.

<http://www.geocities.com/Athens/Pantheon/9910/>

This is a nineteen page “cram packet” created by a former AP US history student. It is mostly timeline format but includes tables as well. It can be viewed online or downloaded in MS Word.

<http://www.emayzine.com/history17a/lectures.html>

<http://www.emayzine.com/history17b/lectures.html>

These are detailed college lecture notes that can be viewed online. The first link (17a) is to notes from the first half of American history while the second link (17b) covers later American history.

<http://www.uccp.org/>

AP Exam Prep Workshops consist of a series of six, two-hour live sessions in an online classroom. The sessions are facilitated by UC Cyber Tutors in real time. Workshop topics include test strategies, time management, and multiple choice and free response practice. Cyber Tutors provide individualized feedback to students throughout the workshop series. Students also receive 24-hour access to an AP Exam Help Desk containing numerous, self directed exam preparation resources. Students must register by mid-February. Cost is $75 per student.

http://www.flvs.net/students_parents/AP_exam_prep.php

An online APUSH test review from the Florida Virtual Schools. Test-taking resources, practice tests, essay prompts, and multiple choice assessments are all provided in a self-paced, interactive environment. Cost is $25 per subject.